PLEASE NOTE

A Cover Sheet is Required with Your Land Recordings

In compliance with P.L. 2011, c. 217 (NJSA 46:26A-5) a cover sheet or an electronic synopsis is required with all land documents submitted for recording.

For customers who record documents in hard copy format via U.S. Mail, express, courier or over the counter a cover sheet is required. Below is a link to a PDF fillable cover sheet which may be used with hard copy documents submitted for recording: <http://www.capemaycountynj.gov/920/Document-Recording>.

$20.00 Additional Fee Will Be Charged for Documents Submitted Without a Cover Sheet

NJSA 46:26A-5 (c) provides if no electronic synopsis or cover sheet is included an additional fee of $20.00 for the cost of indexing the document is charged.

Escrow Account Customers who submit land documents without the required cover sheet will have their recording accounts debited the additional $20.00 fee per document.

Customers paying by check who submit land documents without the required cover sheet or fee will have their unrecorded documents returned with a letter requesting the additional fee.

eRecording Customers are Compliant with the Cover Sheet/ Electronic Synopsis Requirement

For those customers who electronically record documents a cover sheet/electronic synopsis is an integrated part of the document submitted. There is no further requirement for customers who eRecord.

To register for an eRecording Account go to <http://www1.njcountyrecording.com/njcr/Account/Home.aspx> .

Please note: For hard copy recordings the cover sheet counts as a page and the recording fee will be adjusted accordingly. There is no additional charge for the cover sheet attached to filed and flat fee documents such as Notices of Settlement, UCCs and (original) mortgages endorsed for cancellation.
